Salesian Reflection

The 27th Sunday in Ordinary Time (10/4/2026)

The image of the vineyard is the focus of two of today's readings. In both cases, things in the vineyard happen not to turn out the way the owner had planned. It seems that the people responsible for caring for the vineyard haven't held up to the owner's expectations.

As we consider these two passages, Jesus wants us to understand that God is the owner of the vineyard of life. We are responsible for the upkeep of God's vineyard. We collaborate in God's ongoing plan of creation, redemption, inspiration and salvation. We are to harvest the grapes of life in ways that give life: through honesty, respect, purity and decency.

As we consider what Jesus presents to us, we realize that we don't always live up to God's expectation. We know the kind of vineyard that God wants us to cultivate.

Too often we allow sin, fear and selfishness to prevent us from producing the kinds of fruit that gives life. Instead of grapes of life, we may find ourselves producing grapes of wrath: jealousy, envy and indifference, or worse, hatred, violence and injustice.

As we look within ourselves and at the world around us, we can find ourselves at times discouraged and anxious. At these moments, we need to listen to St. Paul:

"Have no anxiety at all." Francis de Sales has told us why: "With the single exception of sin, anxiety is the greatest evil that can happen to a soul." Francis then explains his observation. "Instead of removing the evil, anxiety increases it and involves the soul in great anguish and distress together with such loss of strength and courage that it imagines the evil to be incurable - all this is extremely dangerous." (Introduction, 4. 11)

We need to be honest. We need to identify those areas of our lives - our thoughts, feelings, attitudes and actions - in which we experience difficulty in cultivating a harvest of peace, justice, reconciliation and love. But we need to do this without anxiety because anxiety both weakens our ability to turn away from sin and robs us of the courage we need to do what is right and good.

After acknowledging the reality of sin and the shortcomings in our life, we need to dedicate more of our energies to living "according to what you have learned and accepted then, the God of peace will be with you."

Let us strive each day to produce a harvest of love from the vineyard of life …but avoid anxiety in the process.

A MESSAGE FROM OUR BISHOP

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

From the very beginning, the Church has been called to be the living presence of Christ's love in the world, especially to those who are most in need. In the Diocese of Camden, that mission is made real every day because of your generosity to the South Jersey Catholic Ministries Appeal.

Your gift is more than financial support; it is an act of faith. Through your generosity, children are educated in our Catholic schools, families receive food and shelter in moments of crisis, the sick and elderly are accompanied with dignity, and men preparing for the priesthood are formed to serve God's people.

These ministries exist because you choose to respond to Christ's call to love one another. Yet many of our brothers and sisters continue to face profound challenges: spiritual and material. The needs before us remain great. In this year's appeal, Missionaries of Mercy, I invite you to renew your commitment to charity, which lies at the heart of our Catholic faith. When we give, we become instruments of God's mercy, walking alongside those who are struggling and reminding them that they are never forgotten.

Together, as a diocesan family, your generosity helps transform lives, strengthen faith, and bring hope to those who need it most.

Thank you for being a witness to Christ's love in South Jersey.

Cremation and Proper Handling of Cremated Remains
Your Choices Don't Stop with Cremation

While you may have chosen to be cremated, remember to choose your final resting place. Although the Church earnestly recommends the pious custom of burying the bodies of the dead be observed, it does not however, forbid cremation unless it has been chosen for reasons which are contrary to Christian teaching. Cremated remains are the body of the deceased in a changed form. We should honor them as we honor the body. They must be reverently buried or entombed in a place reserved for the burial of the dead.

"The stone that the builders rejected has become the corner stone…" - Matthew 21:42

Jesus was rejected by the religious and political leaders of his day, as well as ordinary citizens, but he was still obedient to God, the Father. Similarly, living a stewardship lifestyle may cause you to be "rejected" by others, but we, too are called to be obedient. Saying grace before a meal in a restaurant may attract some strange looks from some. But to others it is a sign that God is alive and well!
