SALESIAN REFLECTION

Feast of Christ the King (11/20/2022)

In his letter to the Colossians, St. Paul reminds us that we have been made worthy to come into the kingdom of Jesus through his death on the cross and his rising to new life.

Jesus is the center of God's plan of creation: "All were created through him, and for him. He is before all else that is." Jesus is the "image of the invisible God," an obvious reference to Adam's creation in God's image. Jesus, then, is the ideal human being; he shows us our real potential as human beings because of God's great love.

Jesus is also the agent of redemption, the new creation. As he was the firstborn of all creatures, Jesus is also the firstborn from the dead. As all things were created in him, so he reconciles everything in his person. Today we acclaim him head of the Church and ruler of the universe.

The gospel reading reminds us that Jesus is King and his throne is the cross. His kingship is one of love and sacrifice, not power and dominion.

While we join the Church in acclaiming Jesus as King, the Gospel reminds us that Jesus' reign is ultimately exercised in the mind and heart of each believer. Like the thief on the cross, each of us must recognize Jesus in faith. Like him, our prayer at the moment of death can be: "Jesus, remember me when you enter upon your reign." And Jesus, our redeemer and Lord, will respond with loving compassion: "This day you will be with me in paradise."

But we have work to do now for the building up of Jesus' kingdom. His kingdom is one of justice and peace for every person. Every person, regardless of race or creed or economic status, possesses dignity as an image of God. Everyone has a right and a responsibility to contribute his or her talents in the making of human society.

As faithful disciples of Jesus, you and I are asked to treat everyone with reverence and help them to recognize and respect their own dignity as an image of God. We can also make efforts to help transform our society to be more just and less violent.

May Jesus be King for us – the center of our hearts. May he transform us more completely in his image, so that we are better able to see his image in one another and in everyone we meet.

Rev. Michael S. Murray, OSFS,
Executive Director of the De Sales Spirituality Center

The next weekly session of "That Man is You" (TMIY) is on Monday, November 21 and the theme is Pray Like a Saint. Matthew Leonard returns presenting 3 Stages of Prayer: Vocal, Meditative and Contemplative, and Meditative Prayer is a Quest. The meeting begins at 7 PM in the Parish Hall, Father McGivney Room.

Thanksgiving Message from Father Dave

As we celebrate Thanksgiving, I give thanks to God for the faith and generosity of you, our parishioners.

On behalf of the parish staff, I wish all the blessings of a happy Thanksgiving.

Fr. Dave

A Thanksgiving Prayer

Almighty God, giver of all good gifts, We give thanks for the wonders of your creation; the gift of life, the beauty of our land, the freedoms of our nation.

Thank you too for the comfort of our homes and for the blessings of family, friends and our daily bread.

Though we as individuals and as a nation sometimes feel the heavy weight of our burdens and cares we thank you for the grace to see them through.

When we come to the end of this day and every day thereafter may our hearts still be grateful and our prayers be ones of praise and thanksgiving.

We make this prayer in the unity of the Holy Spirit and in the name of Jesus Christ who is Lord now and forever. Amen.

give thanks,
for this is the will of God
for you in Christ
Jesus." 1 Thes 5: 18

Prayer for Priestly Vocations

Lord Jesus, we ask you to bless the Diocese of Camden with an increase in vocations to the priesthood. We pray that young men from our parishes and families will hear your call and be both generous and courageous in their response. May more young men serve you as priests who teach the faith, preach the Gospel, celebrate the sacraments and make you present among us through their ministry. Encourage them to embrace the joy-filled and fulfilling life of a diocesan priest. May parents support priestly vocations in their families by prayer and good example. We entrust these prayers through Mary Immaculate, our patroness, hopeful that you will bless our diocese with more priests in the near future, who lives and reigns forever and ever. Amen

NATIONAL Eucharistic Revival

"One Sunday in July 1887, Therese received a great Eucharistic grace at Saint-Pierre cathedral. At the end of the Mass, a picture of the Crucified Christ stuck out of her missal. She was struck by the idea that His Blood was falling to the ground without anyone thinking of collecting it. She decided to remain at the foot of the cross for the rest of her life to receive this precious Divine dew for the sake of sinners. In her heart sounded the cry of Jesus, 'I thirst.' It was her thirst for love."

Cremation and Proper Handling of Cremated Remains
Your Choices Don't Stop with Cremation

While you may have chosen to be cremated, remember to choose your final resting place. Although the Church earnestly recommends the pious custom of burying the bodies of the dead be observed, it does not however, forbid cremation unless it has been chosen for reasons which are contrary to Christian teaching. Cremated remains are the body of the deceased in a changed form. We should honor them as we honor the body. They must be reverently buried or entombed in a place reserved for the burial of the dead.
