SALESIAN REFLECTION

The Nativity of the Lord (12/25/2022)

The prologue of St. John's gospel which we just heard is quite a change from the familiar story of Jesus' birth told by St. Luke, yet it is filled with its own beauty. As John tells it, "The Word became flesh, and made his dwelling among us." He tells us that everything that has been created has been given life through the eternal Son of God, the Word. And now the Word chooses to become physically present in his creation so that he can show us the great love God has for us. God wants us to be his children and share his life - that's why Jesus came!

There's sadness in the story - when Jesus comes, some do not accept him. There is also joy! Those who do accept him are given "a share in his fullness, love following upon love." We are able to "see his glory, the glory of the Father's only Son, full of grace and truth."

As Oblates, the mystery of the incarnation has a special meaning. The Savior wants to become incarnate in each one of us. Jesus wants to live in us so that he can continue his mission - bringing his saving love and compassion to each person whose lives we touch. He comes to us in Eucharist each day to continue his transforming work in us, "giving us a share in his fullness, love following upon love."

We have good reason to shout with joy and break into song. The Savior has come to dwell in us.

As we make our way to the manger today, let us hold our heart in our hands as a gift for the Word made flesh. He will take it and fill it with the fullness of his love.

Then he will return it to us as his gift and ask us to share his gift of love with everyone around us.

May the Lord bless our efforts today, and every day!

Executive Director of the De Sales

An Epiphany Celebration for Wise Women

Women's Christmas, Nollaig na mBan, is rooted in a delightful Irish tradition. On the Feast of the Epiphany, Irish women left the care of their households to the men for a few hours so they could enjoy each other's company away from their domestic responsibilities, especially after the busyness of Christmas preparations.

A Women's Christmas will be offered on Friday, January 6, beginning with Mass at 11:00AM, then followed by a program in the Parish Hall. A simple lunch will be served.

To attend, call or email Dani by

Each week the Talking Catholic hosts interview Catholic leaders about what brought them to where they are now and how they are bringing the faith to their communities. Check it out at:

Prayer for Priestly Vocations

Lord Jesus, we ask you to bless the Diocese of Camden with an increase in vocations to the priesthood. We pray that young men from our parishes and families will hear your call and be both generous and courageous in their response. May more young men serve you as priests who teach the faith, preach the Gospel, celebrate the sacraments and make you present among us through their ministry. Encourage them to embrace the joy-filled and fulfilling life of a diocesan priest. May parents support priestly vocations in their families by prayer and good example. We entrust these prayers through Mary Immaculate, our patroness, hopeful that you will bless our diocese with more priests in the near future, who lives and reigns forever and ever. Amen

A Sacred Ministry to God's People

Priests have a critical mission, to bring people to Jesus and Jesus to people. They are spiritual fathers to thousands of Catholics. They preach the Gospel and offer the sacrifice of the Mass. In short, priests are living witnesses of Christ in the world—men of strong character who stand out in our secular culture.

The priesthood is a calling

Christ asks of some men the sacrifice of their lives in following him as his more intimate companions. From all eternity, certain men are called to the priesthood. It is a call inscribed in their nature and because of this, is a call that will bring them fulfillment.

Could God be calling you to be a priest?

God made you for a unique purpose. Even before you were born, he knew your vocation, your mission in life. And if you are a faithful Catholic man, God may be calling you for a higher purpose—to become a Catholic priest. Is Jesus calling you to be his priest?

"They shall exult before the LORD, for he comes; for he comes to rule the earth. He shall rule the world with justice and the peoples with his constancy."

Cremation and Proper Handling of Cremated Remains
Your Choices Don't Stop with Cremation

While you may have chosen to be cremated, remember to choose your final resting place. Although the Church earnestly recommends the pious custom of burying the bodies of the dead be observed, it does not however, forbid cremation unless it has been chosen for reasons which are contrary to Christian teaching. Cremated remains are the body of the deceased in a changed form. We should honor them as we honor the body. They must be reverently buried or entombed in a place reserved for the burial of the dead.

NATIONAL Eucharistic Revival

"We have close to us as much as Joseph had at Nazareth; we have our Lord in the Blessed Sacrament, but our poor eyes fail to see Him. Let us once become interior souls and we shall immediately see. In no better way can we enter into the Heart of our Lord than through Saint Joseph. Jesus and Mary are eager to pay the debts which they owe him for his devoted care of them, and their greatest pleasure is to fulfill his least desire. Let him, then, lead you by hand into the interior sanctuary of Jesus Eucharistic."
