SALESIAN REFLECTION

Solemnity of The Most Holy Trinity (6/4/2023)

Today's Scripture readings reveal our God as Three in One: Father, Son and Holy Spirit. We heard God reveal his name and his love to Moses: "The Lord, a merciful and gracious God, slow to anger and rich in kindness and fidelity." Moses bowed to the ground in reverence as God revealed his tender love and he asked God to come along in the company of his people.

Jesus tells us even more about our God: "God so loved the world that he gave his only Son so that everyone who believes in him might not perish but might have eternal life. God did not send his Son into the world to condemn the world but that the world might be saved through him."

These are all familiar words to us. How do we hear these words and what do they say about how we live? Do we hear them as the truth about our God and believe in a God who has taken such a great initiative to love us?

Jesus is the revelation of the greatness of our God's love for us. In Jesus, we see our God loving us: a merciful and gracious God who is slow to anger and rich in kindness and fidelity.

Our God is speaking to us again today, reminding us, "I love you so much." How are we going to respond? I would suggest a simple response: "I love you too."

Then we need to sit in prayer with this word of God's love for us and allow the love of God shown to us in Jesus to fill our heart. God's love has the power to transform us little by little and lead us to love more in our daily actions.

St. Paul tells us something about loving: encourage one another and live in peace. This is loving one another as Jesus has loved us. This is learning to love as our God loves: Father, Son, and Holy Spirit – Three Persons, yet One God.

Like Moses, may we learn to bow to the ground in awe and reverence at the mystery of God's great love for us. Then let us rise and set about loving one another in daily living.

Procession will

after the 11:00AM
Mass and walk down
the Washington

All Parishioners are invited to participate in this special devotion to the Blessed sacrament.

All Parishes in the Diocese have been asked to have a Eucharistic Procession to bring attention to the Great Gift that the Eucharist is to our Catholic Community.

"For God so loved the world that He gave His only Son..." John 3:16

Is your love conditional? Is there a price that others have to pay to receive your love and forgiveness? Are you generous with your time, skills, money and possessions? If you give someone something, do you expect something in return? Do you give your time freely or do you "fit it in" when it's convenient for you? God desires a personal relationship with us so much that He gave us His Son, unconditionally! Pray for Stewardship with a grateful and generous heart.

Prayer for Priestly Vocations

Lord Jesus, we ask you to bless the Diocese of Camden with an increase in vocations to the priesthood.

We pray that young men from our parishes and families will hear your call and be both generous and courageous in their response. May more young men serve you as priests who teach the faith, preach the Gospel, celebrate the sacraments and make you present among us through their ministry. Encourage them to embrace the joy-filled and fulfilling life of a diocesan priest. May parents support priestly vocations in their families by prayer and good example. We entrust these prayers through Mary Immaculate, our patroness, hopeful that you will bless our diocese with more priests in the near future, who lives and reigns forever and ever. Amen

Cremation and Proper Handling of Cremated Remains
Your Choices Don't Stop with Cremation

While you may have chosen to be cremated, remember to choose your final resting place. Although the Church earnestly recommends the pious custom of burying the bodies of the dead be observed, it does not however, forbid cremation unless it has been chosen for reasons which are contrary to Christian teaching. Cremated remains are the body of the deceased in a changed form. We should honor them as we honor the body. They must be reverently buried or entombed in a place reserved for the burial of the dead.

Ministry of the Month

Ushers, the welcoming face of Our Lady Star of the Sea

These ministers of hospitality, do more than just take up the collection! They are the ones who answer visitors' questions, help you find a seat, facilitate the flow for Holy Communion, are the first on the scene when there is any sign of trouble in the Church and usually are the first to come and the last to leave a worship service. It is a ministry, often unnoticed, but of prime importance for a prayerful and flowing experience of worship.

Ushers come to the Mass of their choice and are trained beforehand on the "mechanics" of being an usher. If you would be interested in serving God and his Church in this way - woman or man - please get in touch with Frank Snyder (215-262-5038).

Each week the Talking Catholic hosts interview Catholic leaders about what brought them to where they are now and how they are bringing the faith to their communities.
