"The seed sown among thorns is the one who hears the word but then the cares of the world and the lure of riches choke the word and it bears no fruit." - Matthew 13: 22

Does the lure of riches and material goods choke God out of your life? Are you so caught up in earthly activities that you have no time for God? Gratitude and generosity are virtues of Stewardship that we should strive to do on a daily basis. Every decision we make either takes us one step closer to God or one step further away. What we receive at Mass every Sunday should be shared with others all the other days of the week as well.

"Follow your own way of speaking to our Lord sincerely, lovingly, confidently, and simply, as your heart dictates."

SALESIAN REFLECTION

15th Sunday in Ordinary Time (7/16/2023)

What a beautiful image St. Paul paints for us today: all creation is groaning as it eagerly awaits the fullness of redemption when everyone and everything will be freed from its slavery to corruption and share in the glorious freedom of the children of God.

The presence of the Spirit within us gives us hope as we join our groaning to the groaning of all creation.

Isaiah reminded us: just as the rain and snow effectively water the earth, making it fertile and fruitful, so too will the word of God do his will, achieving the end for which He sent it.

Jesus also compares God's word to seed sown by the Divine Sower. The seed always bears some kind of fruit, serving some purpose, but in good soil it bears fruit abundantly.

The seed sown is much like the rain that falls - the extent of its ability to make fertile and fruitful depends on the ground that receives it. Even the short-lived wild-flowers that bloom after a desert storm serve a purpose.

Jesus wants more for us.

He adds a warning to the parable: "Let everyone heed what he hears." That means that we must spend some time in prayer with his words in order for them to be most fruitful in our life. They are able to touch that place of groaning, of eager waiting, in each of us. They speak to that hope we all have as a gift of the Spirit in us.

May each of us be "good soil" today - soil which accepts the seed and the rain that God is sending us in His word. In our prayerful listening, may we have the courage to remove stumbling-stones and thorns that may be present in the soil of our heart. May we allow that seed to be watered well and become an abundant yield as we await with a sure hope the redemption of our bodies.

ENCOUNTER OUR EUCHARISTIC LORD:

One Night Only!

A Special Mission with the Sisters of Children of Mary
Sunday July 23, 2023

Live Jesus

From the Pastor

Warm Greetings to Everyone!

Today our parish begins the annual appeal in support of the Diocese of Camden Charitable Outreach in South Jersey. Beginning this year the name has been changed from The House of Charities to the South Jersey Catholic Ministries Appeal. This name change is meant to better express the focus of the annual collection. Any monies collected is given directly to the Charities that the Diocese supports in South Jersey. All donations are considered "Restricted Funds" and can only be used for Charitable Outreach as outlined in the aim of the SJ Catholic Ministries Appeal.

The Theme for this year is: "For the Life of the World." In this time of the Eucharistic Revival this theme reminds us that Jesus gave His life for the Life of the World. It also calls us to realize that Jesus gives us the gift of the Eucharist so that we can be Eucharist for others especially those who are in need among us.

This collection each year is so very important in helping the Church to continue the work that Jesus has commissioned His Church to do in Matthew 25 were Jesus says: "When I was hungry you gave Me something to drink, when I was thirsty you gave Me something to drink." The Catholic Church has always helped people in need far and near. All money collected helps the Physically, Spiritually and Emotionally hungry who seek our help. Given the struggles of many people in our society who turn to the Catholic Church for assistance it is necessary for us to be able to respond to them in a way that Jesus would.

The goal for our parish, Our Lady Star of the Sea this year is $129,000. In my two years here at Our Lady I have been humbled by the generosity of our parishioners and visitors. I ask you once again to consider a pledge to help us support the charitable outreach done in our name throughout South Jersey and to reach our goal for the year.

Thank you for your continued support of our parish and people in need who knock at our door.

Humbly,
Fr. John Dolan, OSFS

Cremation and Proper Handling of Cremated Remains
Your Choices Don't Stop with Cremation

While you may have chosen to be cremated, remember to choose your final resting place. Although the Church earnestly recommends the pious custom of burying the bodies of the dead be observed, it does not however, forbid cremation unless it has been chosen for reasons which are contrary to Christian teaching. Cremated remains are the body of the deceased in a changed form. We should honor them as we honor the body. They must be reverently buried or entombed in a place reserved for the burial of the dead.

Grave Reuse for Cremated Remains

Grave reuse is an alternative option for owners of an existing burial privilege. Grave reuse allows for the addition of cremated remains to an existing grave, crypt, or niche. Not only does this keep a family together and respect the deceased's personal wishes, but it follows the Catholic teaching of interring cremains on sacred ground. Owners of a burial privilege can add burial rights for cremated remains depending on the type and location of the grave, crypt, or niche owned. A member of our staff can advise as to what would be available for the specific location and grave or crypt type.
