"We know that all things work for good for those who love God, who are called according to his purpose." - Romans 8:28

Do you really trust God? Do you really believe that in our Stewardship God will provide all that you need? Faith is a challenge for everyone at times. Putting our trust in God, in everything we do, in good times and in bad, means that God's plan for our lives may be quite different than what we planned. When one door closes, another one opens. Trust in God, His plan is always better.

SALESIAN REFLECTION

17th Sunday in Ordinary Time (7/30/2023)

Today's first reading gives us the origin of Solomon's great wisdom: it comes from God as a gift in answer to Solomon's humble prayer. God is pleased that his prayer is selfless - and he gives him far more than he requested.

This seems to be God's habit with the humble.

In the Gospel, Jesus is encouraging us to ask for this gift of wisdom so that we will be able to discern what is really important when it comes to choosing how we will live as a member of the kingdom. Like the man who finds a treasure or the merchant who finds a valuable pearl, we must be willing to surrender all to be a part of the reign of God.

Our willingness to surrender our all will be based on the depth of our belief that "God makes all things work together for the good of those who love him." God has called us to become the image of Jesus and has already made this possible through His Son's sacrificial death for us. Our final destiny is glorious because God has already made it so for us. Even now we have some taste of that glory in the midst of the trials and sufferings that are also a part of our calling.

As the Gospel reminds us, the reign of God is in process. The dragnet is collecting all kinds of things. We want to be found among the "worthwhile things" and not among the "useless" which will be thrown away.

Those who are learning as the reign of God unfolds must ask for the gift of wisdom, as Solomon did. Then we will have the insight needed to keep surrendering all as we continue toward the glory that God has prepared for us who are open to being transformed in the image of His Son.

Let us seek the gift of an understanding heart and use it well in all we say and do.

Executive Director of the De Sales
Spirituality Center

"With God there is no need for long speeches. In heaven the angels utter no other word than this: 'HOLY.' This is their entire prayer and in paradise they are occupied with this single word as an act of homage, to the single Word of God, who lives eternally...

In prayer, more is accomplished by listening than by talking."

SOUTH JERSEY CATHOLIC MINISTRIES APPEAL

2023 APPEAL: "FOR THE LIFE OF THE WORLD"

In every way, the work of our ministries emanates from the Eucharist. As Saint John Paul II said, "The Eucharist is the heart of the Church. Where Eucharistic life flourishes, there the life of the church will blossom." The Eucharist is the true presence of Jesus Christ, it is the spiritual food that gives us strength to carry out His work each day and everything we do as Catholics emanates from that.

The theme of this year's campaign, "For the Life of the World," reminds us that our spiritual sustenance and community are rooted in the Eucharist, in Christ. Your individual gift to this Appeal will become one of many that unites and builds up the one Body of Christ. Through our various ministries across the diocese your gift is shared and brings comfort, relief, encouragement and support to many.

Simply complete the form below, drop in the collection basket or mail directly to the Parish Office.

Cremation and Proper Handling of Cremated Remains
Your Choices Don't Stop with Cremation

While you may have chosen to be cremated, remember to choose your final resting place. Although the Church earnestly recommends the pious custom of burying the bodies of the dead be observed, it does not however, forbid cremation unless it has been chosen for reasons which are contrary to Christian teaching. Cremated remains are the body of the deceased in a changed form. We should honor them as we honor the body. They must be reverently buried or entombed in a place reserved for the burial of the dead.

Join us for an Our Lady Star of the Sea Church tradition as we celebrate the "Wedding of the Sea" after the 11AM Mass on the Feast of the Assumption, Tues., Aug. 15.

After Mass a statue of the Blessed Virgin Mary will be carried in a procession down Ocean Street from the church to the beach for the traditional "Wedding of the Sea" ceremony.

The "Wedding of the Sea" is a popular centuries old rite in many European seacoast cities and towns like Venice. The ceremony symbolizes the Wedding of the Sea and the City created by God, in proximity to each other, and blessed by His love and protection.

After the blessing, a lifeguard will assist Father Mathias (former Parochial Vicar) by casting a floral garland into the surf.

Where Mary has gone, we hope to follow!
Holy Mary, Mother of God, pray for us!
